

4th The Role of State in Varieties of Capitalism (SVOC) Uneven Development, Inequalities and the State

Time	Thursday November 29
9:00-10:00	Registration (Coffe and tea during registration)
10:00-10:30	Conference opening Miklós Szanyi (MTA KRTK), Péter Balázs (CENS CEU) (Room: Popper)
10:30-12:00 Parallel Sessions	CEE region	Welfare-systems	New Developmental State	Emerging economies
	Room: N9 Popper Chair: Csaba Jelinek	Room: N9 Gellner Chair: Tamás Szigetvári	Room: N9 Senate Chair: Ágnes Szunomár	Room: N11 004 Chair: Zsuzsanna Biedermann
	Márton Czirfusz Reindustrialization, financialization and role of state in Hungarian uneven development	Jesús Peiró-Palomin and Andrés Picazo-Tadeo Assessing well-being in European regions. Does government quality matter?	Judit Ricz Developmental States in the twenty-first century myth or reality?	Mária Csanádi Dynamics of anti-corruption campaigns and power redistribution in China
	Zoltán Pogátsa Inequalities and the State in Eastern Europe	Jakub Bartak and Lukasz Jablonski Income Inequality and human capital acquisition. What is the role of educational institutions?	Andrea Szalavetz Green industrial policy - Are developmental states really more successful than established developed countries?	Epifania Langa and Maria Nkhonjera Common Market or economic community? Challenging regional integration using evidence from capital equipment and related industries in Mozambique and South Africa
	Małgorzata Dworakowska Financial independence of local government units in Poland in the context of revenue inequalities of these entities	Edyta Marcinkiewicz Mandatory pension systems' generosity vs involvement into voluntary pensions: A cross-country empirical evidence	Gábor Vigvári State led capitalism in the world trading system - a threat to stability?	Sándor Gyula Nagy and Petra Szepesi Argentina's economic struggles: from IMF to IMF
12:00-13:00	Buffet lunch (in front of Gellner room)
13:00-14:30	Keynote speech: Henk Overbeek INEQUALITY, POWER AND THE RULE OF CAPITAL Reflections on the state of the global political economy

14:30-16:00 Parallel Sessions	Governance and world economy	Welfare-systems 2	New Developmental State 2	CEE region 2
	Room: N9 Popper Chair: John Szabó	Room: N9 Gellner Chair: Beáta Farkas	Room: N9 Senate Chair: Judit Ricz	Room: N11 004 Chair: Miklós Szanyi
	Mark Thomas For the People? Work in an Era of Right-Wing Populism and Austerity	Maria Kristina Alinsunurin Condition as a form of inclusion: governmentality in conditional cash transfer programs in developing economies	György Csáki Development of the Taiwanese education system	Péter Mihályi and Iván Szelényi Globalization, inequalities and the counter-revolution of the nation-states
	Csaba Jelinek Governing uneven development on multiple scales: The changing relation of local and central governments in Hungary	Filip Chybalski and Agnes Orosz How to compare welfare state regimes in terms of intergenerational fairness?	András Deák Military Bureaucrats and Modernization in Russia - Does it have anything to add to VoC literature?	Ákos Dombi and Katarzyna Szarzec and Piotr Matuszak State Capitalism: escaping the middle income trap
Tatjana Boczy Governance in Smart City Vienna: Mitigating inequalities or responsibilities?	Szabolcs Pásztor Helping the home ownership in developing countries - A new approach to mortgage lending	Andrea Ribeiro and Roberta Rodrigues The Demise of Brazilian Developmental State: Political Constraints and the Role of Finance	Gábor Scheiring Uneven Development and Authoritarian Capitalism: from the competition state to the accumulative state in Hungary
16:00-16:30	Coffee break (in front of Gellner room)
16:30-18:00 Paralell Sessions	Income inequalities	New Developmental State 3	Global Business	European Institutions
	Room: N9 Popper Chair: Annamária Artner	Room: N9 Gellner Chair: Judit Ricz	Room: N9 Senate Chair: Andrea Éltető	Room: N11 004 Chair: Katalin Völgyi
	Jacek Tomkiewicz Income distribution and Social Policy in the Enlarged EU	Beáta Farkas and Sarolta Somosi Changing access to public healthcare and social inequalities - the case of Hungary	Ágnes Szunomár and Magdolna Sass and Éva Oszvald and Shobha Kiran Asian FDI in Hungary: home or host country factors dominate?	Gregorz Waszkiewicz Market discipline and political uncertainty on the Sovereign Debt Markets in the EMU

16:30-18:00 Paralell Sessions	Mansee Barbhaiya and Ashima Banker	Tamás Szigetvári	Magdolna Sass	Miklós Somai
	Briding the Gap: Impacts of Government Policies and Schemes in Reducing Economic Inequalities - A case of Kachchch Distric, Gujarat	Trade opening, economic reforms and social consequences in North Africa	Post-transition multinationals: do they have specific features?	Rising inequalities as part of the story behind Brexit vote
	Mohon Kumar Naik	Eka Ikpe	Roman Stöllinger	Norbert Szijártó
	Is Compensation through Resettlement and Rehabilitation just for displaced people? A Sociological inquiry of Odisha state in India	Developmental statehood in a post-neoliberal era: Considering interactions across the state and global economy in the context of a 'rising Africa'	Smile Curves Economics vs Comparative Advantages: Does Functional Specialisation Matter for Economic Growth	Austerity Measures, Structural Reforms, Labour Markets and Inequality - A Comparative Analysis of EU's Economic and Financial Adjustment Programmes
	Nermin Oruc, Will Bartlett, Gorana Krstic and Jelena Zarkovic	Christopher Hope	István Kollai	Malgorzata Dziembala
	Varieties of Transition in Yugoslav Successor States: Labour Market Institutions and Inequality	Namibia's 'declaratory' developmental state: challenges in moving from rhetoric to action	City-statism in Central and Eastern Europe: backwash effects of developed cores	Strengthening of social cohesion of the Polish regions - the challenge for the economic policy
19:00	Conference dinner
	Venue: First Strudel House of Pest, 1051 Budapest Október 6. str. 22.
Time	Friday November 30
9:00-10:30 Parallel Sessions	World economic cycles	Global Business 2	Emerging economies 2	Financialization
	Room: N9 Popper	Room: N9 Gellner	Room: N9 Senate	Room: N11 004
	Chair: Andrea Éltető	Chair: Andrea Szalavetz	Chair: András Deák	Chair: John Szabó
	Miklós Szanyi	Christina Reis and Andre Souza	Mausam Kumar	Dora Piroška and Ana Podvršic
	Technological and economic cycles	Drawing value curves: learnings from financial analysis of the world's biggest manufacturing corporations	State and the Uneven Development of Capitalism in India	Bank privatization under New European Banking Governance - wither democratic control of banking on EU's periphery?

9:00-10:30 Paralell Sessions	Andrey Yakovlev	Katalin Antalóczy and Magdolna Sass	Chengzuo Tang	Juan Angel Lafuente, Nuria Petit, Jesús Ruiz and Pedro Serrano
	On big cycles in development of global capitalism	The devil in the details - internationalisation of a Hungarian hybrid state- owned company	Business into the House: The Institutional Logic of Admitting Private Entrepreneur into the Formal Political Institutio in Post- Socialist China (1995- 2010	Dissecting Interbank Risk using Basis Swap Spreads
	Josip Lucev	Ádám Kerényi	Zsuzsanna Biedermann	Julio César Chamorro Futinico
	Approaching endogenous institutional change through the systemic cycle	Digital is the new normal - FinTechs in the EU and in the world	Chinese influence in developmental states in Africa: opportunity or challenge?	Financialisation and Rising Inequality in Developing and Emerging Economies: A Data Panel Analysis
10:30-11:00	Coffee break (in front of Gellner room)
11:00-12:30	Keynote speech: Robert Wade WHY 'GLOBALIZATION' POLICY MUST BE RE-THOUGHT?
12:30-13:30	Buffet lunch (in front of Gellner room)
13:30-15:00 Parallel Sessions	Labour and Migration		Regional (urban) cohesion
	Room: N9 Popper Chair: Zsófia Naszádos		Room: N9 Gellner Chair: Miklós Szanyi
	Agnieszka Szulc-Obloza and Malgorzata Szczepaniak		Atanu Ghoshray, Javier Ordonez and Mercedes Monfort
	Labour market institutions and income inequalities in the Visegrad group countries		Economic integration, within- and between-country inequality in Europe
	Marta Pachocka		Erika Nagy and Gábor Nagy
Migration and refugee crisis: bargaining over the future of EU asylum policy		The making of urban consumption landscapes in the periphery - understanding the production of state- space and the limits of local agencies in CEE context
Annamária Artner		Erzsébet Nagyné Rózsa
Impossibility of catching up - The example of Brazil		The Islamic Republic of Iran - the challenges of the sanctions
		Fruzsina Sigér
		Inequality and Euroscepticism in Croatia
15:00-15:30	Closing remarks and farewell (Room: Popper)
Note: N9 means Nádor street 9. N11 means Nádor street 11.

